

Academic Support Policy

ST JOHN'S
GRAMMAR

International Students

Source of Obligation	Standard 6.3 of the National Code requires the School to offer reasonable support to International students to enable them to achieve expected learning outcomes regardless of the International student's place of study or mode of study of the course, at no additional cost to the International student. Standard 6.4 requires the School to facilitate access to learning support services consistent with the requirements of the course, mode of study and the learning needs of the International student cohorts, including having and implementing documented processes for supporting and maintaining contact with International students undertaking online or distance education.
St John's Grammar School's Policy	It is the School's policy to offer various types of academic support to International students so that they can achieve expected learning outcomes under the School's curriculum. International students who require academic assistance, can contact the International Students Coordinator, or one of their teachers for assistance. If a teacher believes that an International student requires academic assistance in relation to a particular area of the School's curriculum, the teacher must pass this information to the International Students Coordinator.
Academic Support Services	The School provides the following academic support services to International students to enable them to achieve expected learning outcomes, at no additional cost to the International student: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• English language assistance programs• mathematics assistance programs• science assistance programs• a tutoring program• supervision of study sessions by academic staff to aid International students with homework or study• study groups run by subject-specific tutors. These services aim to ensure that International students have regular access to academic assistance in a variety of subjects.
Record Keeping	The School maintains evidence of compliance with this policy by maintaining records of academic support provided to an International student in accordance with this policy. Records will be maintained in accordance with our International Students Records Management and Retention Policy.

Learning to Soar